The Dy Commissioner reports that the post in question was abolished in the Mrs Supdt's Rukkam No 949 Dt 23-4-94 and that an endorsement was granted to the petitioners that nothing could be done as the post had been abolished so far back as 1894

Can the petrs be informed that it is now too late in the day to do anything in the matter of their prayer to be reinstated in the office of Kedaparagana which were abolished so far back as 1894?

18/12/08

This drawing into his record & finds that this is frankly an appeal against the order of 1894 abolishing his office The petitioners say that they have been petitioning since then and an endorsement of 1894 is also referred to in his petition. In these circumstances it will not be right to say that his matters do not fall within

Note for the Secretary

This is a simple case. The petitioners are the descendants of the officers concerned. At the census in 1894 it was found that the Brahmin Narasimha Char (1st petr.) was absent from the place and the substitute did not know the Bhashya. As one Lakshmi Iyengar who was doing Alwandar Thothathi was appointed for Bashya Parayana also. It will be seen that each officer received only a pay of 2 annas a month. The then Mangapuri Superintendent availed himself of the opportunity to do away with the large number of officers on nominal salaries.

The parties have been complaining off and on since 1896. It seems from the [illegible] of the present Swami in regard to the Bhashya at the Triumalai Temple we may say that we are not prepared to disturb an arrangement made as far back as 1894 that [illegible] of one fourth [illegible] of the present Swami and dismissing the officer should be restored to the original [illegible]
